

Partnership releases quarterly Here is Houston relocation guide

The Partnership has released the Summer/Fall edition of Here is Houston, the organization's official relocation guide for the greater Houston region. The guide features the latest information on dining and entertainment, educational opportunities and housing options in the City With No Limits.

The Partnership offers several diverse publications on a variety of topics including economic development, living in Houston, and the region's vibrant energy industry. In addition to Here is Houston, the Partnership offers several other publications that are targeted to various audiences, including:

- Opportunity Houston magazine, news and feature articles on influential people, places, and businesses. This publication showcases the region's great quality of life and business climate with each issue focusing on different key Houston industries.
- Energy Capital Houston, an overview of Houston's energy industry, updated annually.
- Economic Development Guide, an in-depth look at Houston's economy and business climate, and a key resource for companies and site selectors alike.

For more information on advertising opportunities, contact Lisa Edwards, Texas Monthly Publishing, at LEdwards@texasmonthly.com, or call 713-960-5099.